WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW about medical spas

What is the difference between a spa and a medical spa?

A medical spa differs from a traditional spa in that it provides procedures that require medical supervision and expertise

What type of supervision is required for medical spas?

The rules governing supervision vary based on state. When choosing a medical spa, it is important to ask who is the medical director and whether they are on-site or immediately reachable.

What type of procedures are typically performed?

Botox, dermal fillers, laser treatments, microneedling, chemical peels, medical-grade skincare, and other non-surgical cosmetic procedures.

Does Holzapfel & Lied Plastic Surgery Center have a medical spa?

Yes! Étage laser + Skin is the medical spa directed by Dr. Holzapfel & Dr. Lied. There is a medical spa at each of our plastic surgery office locations which means there is strict supervision and guidance by our wonderful surgeons.

EDGEWOOD

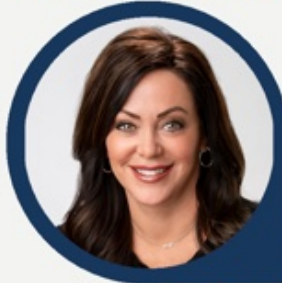

RITA

My favorite treatment is a Hydrafacial. Exceptional results and versatility. It addresses most issues, all ages, and all skin types with zero downtime!

KELLY

My favorite procedures include microneedling and brow tint. Microneedling stimulates your body to produce collagen. Softer, smoother, tighter skin is the result. Brow tint and shape makes a difference in your whole look by framing your eyes.

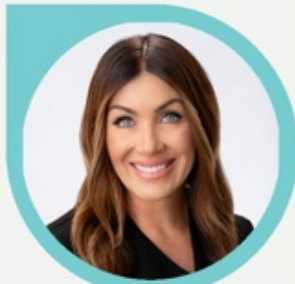

ANNA

Micro-pigmentation for eyebrows is my absolute favorite service to provide. I love the instant results, the way it frames the face and enhances the client's natural features—especially the eyes

KENWOOD

REBECCA

One of my favorite facials is the 24K Mesotherapy Facial. This fine touch microneedling procedure offers the ability to effectively deliver your signature cocktail tailored to your specific skin goals, which may include micro Botox, vitamins, peptides, antioxidants, growth factors and hyaluronic acid. It includes a dermaplane prep and there is no downtime!

TRISH

My favorite procedure is the VI Peel. It gives great results and treats pigmentation, acne, scars, and fine lines with minimal downtime.
